3	This month's focus: BullCharts Alerts – What are they? How to manage? One of the key features in BullCharts is the Alerts feature. Adding an Alert to a price chart can be done from the toolbar button (see screenshot at right), and your alerts can be managed from the BullCharts menu item: Alerts (see screen shot below right). But what does this Alerts feature do exactly? And how does it work? How can you use it to flag a price change for a stock you are not invested in? And how can it warn you that a stock has hit your Stop Loss level? And you can add a sloping Alert line to a price chart – like a trend line – to warn of a trend failure? And you can add an Alert line to the Volume pane to warn of volume spikes? In this months sessions we will explore this topic, and look at ways that BullCharts can be used to help in this endeavour. Any users with experience will be welcome to join in the conversation and explain how they have used the BullCharts Alerts feature. 4	ASX Share Trading Game – The first ASX Share Market Game for 2024 is running, with game play running for 26 weeks (a longer season this year) from 7 March to 5 September. When playing the game, we normally have two Leagues and BullCharts users are welcome to join one or both of our leagues. You will need to have an ASX User ID, and it will be useful to have logged in and viewed the game details: https://game.asx.com.au/game/info/public/about-the-game (login to ASX website to see the details).	0

* Matthew Flinders Hotel – How to find the hotel Board Room

Venue location – The Matthew Flinders Hotel is at: 667 Warrigal Rd, Chadstone, on the east side of busy Warrigal Road, just 350 metres from Holmesglen train station, and 750 metres north of the Monash Freeway. Just north of the Bunnings store and car park.

Car Parking – This is available all around the hotel building, and easy hotel access is available on two sides. It's best to park on the Warrigal Road side of the venue towards the up-hill southern end of the car park (towards Dandenong Road and Monash Freeway), and then access the venue through the main front door which has a Reception Desk inside the door on the left.

Hotel Boardroom meeting room – Our regular monthly user group meeting will start promptly at 7.30pm as normal, in the venue's meeting room known as the "Boardroom". This is fairly well hidden down the back of the large Longitude Function Room. After entering the hotel main entrance into the entry foyer, turn right into the Longitude Function Room(s). Walk down the left side of the function room almost to the very end, and turn left into the passageway that leads to the Boardroom.
