Exclusive “Meet the Speaker” workshops

The first 60 registrants will secure a place in the exclusive “Meet the Speaker” workshops to be held on the Friday evening. Places are allocated on a first in, best dressed basis. Don't miss out, register early for your opportunity to network with one of the following speakers:

Dr Howard Bandy

(USA)
Blue Owl Press,
www.BlueOwlPress.com

Dr Bandy's education includes university degrees in several disciplines (mathematics, physics, engineering, and computer science). He continued his academic work, becoming a tenured full professor of mathematics and computer science, and university dean. He was a senior research analyst at a trading advisory firm, and he consults with and assists individual traders and trading companies in the design, testing, validation, and analysis of trading systems. He is the author of several text books on technical analysis, and specialises in quantitative trading systems.

Trevor Neil MSTA,
MCSI (UK) — BETA Learning & Development Ltd,
www.BetaGroup.co.uk

Trevor has been a trader for more than 40 years, with a number of organisations including Merrill Lynch and Bloomberg. He has been involved with commodities, financial futures, forex, and equities, and has worked as a broker, fund manager and analyst. He is now involved with a large hedge fund, trades his own funds, is consultant editor to a magazine, and university lecturer. He runs seminars around the world helping traders, analysts and portfolio managers to improve their market timing skills.

“Being exposed to such a wealth of trading ideas over one weekend is invaluable. I always come away armed with a few gems to improve my trading results.” — Alan C.

Mohamed El Saïd

Mohamed is currently an Executive Director and Head of the Technical Analysis department for HC Brokerage (HCB), Cairo, Egypt. He holds an MBA in Finance and is currently the Chairman and a TA instructor in the Egyptian Society for Technical Analysts (ESTA), as well as an Education Sub-Committee Member in IFTA. Mohamed authored several TA-related articles and developed several indicators including the Volatility-Based Envelopes (VBE), the Implied Volatility Projection Range (IVPR) and Relative Performance Candlestick Charts (RPCC).

Tim Rea (NZ)

Tim recently won first place in the World Cup Trading Championship with triple digit returns. He is a full time trader and a registered commodity trading advisor. With many years experience he now focuses on system development and trading for his proprietary accounts using many different systems utilizing a wide range of methodologies and futures contracts.

Warning!

Seats are limited. The last ATAA conference in Melbourne (in 2009) attracted 240 participants. With limited seats at the 2014 conference, it is suggested that you register without delay. Registration with the $200 deposit payment will reserve you a seat (but only up to 160 people).

“I have attended the last two conferences and found them very good. I am looking forward to the 2014 conference in Melbourne and have arranged my holiday so I can attend.” — Keith M.

Gala dinner

The Gala dinner on Saturday, 10th May is sure to be a fabulous evening. Enjoy networking with new friends and colleagues and the conference presenters who will be sprinkled around the dinner tables for personal interactions with delegates. The dinner is an optional feature of the conference, and partners are very welcome to attend. And a special surprise also awaits the diners!

Accommodation

Special accommodation rates have been negotiated with Rydges Melbourne for conference delegates. To secure this special rate, accommodation bookings should be made online as part of the registration process. Alternatively, there are many other accommodation options close by where you may choose to stay.

Registration categories

Early bird registration will entitle the delegate to a significant discount. Early bird registration and payment deadline: Friday 28 March 2014.

Standard registration will apply to registrations processed, or payments received after Friday 28 March 2014.

Registrations received after Friday 2 May 2014 are not guaranteed to receive the standard delegate materials.

New payment option!

Register now and simply pay a $200 deposit to secure your place. The balance is paid closer to the conference (please see website for payment options).
